Schools Open Next Week

"School Days, School Days..." will be the song sung in most of the Antioch area schools next Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

For they will be the first days of sessions for several thousand boys and girls from kindergarten through senior year in high school.

About 725 students alone are expected at Antioch Township high school this school year, or about 60 more than attended in 1958-59.

Their first day will be Wednesday, Sept. 9.

Instead on Sept. 8 there will be an institute for AHS teachers to discuss teaching assignments and routing matters for the school opening.

Children at the Antioch Grade school will report Sept. 8, the day after Labor day. The same applies to the new Oakland school building. Both are in school district 34.

Registration for all students planning to attend Emmmons grade school district no. 33 west of Antioch will be held Tuesday morning, Sept. 8, starting at 8:45.

Other schools nearby, opening next Tuesday, will be Lake Villa, Channel Lake and Grass Lake.

Grant Community high school began its school term this week Tuesday morning with about 650 students registered, an increase of 20 over a year ago.

Upper classmen at Central high school in Salem, Wis., were to begin Monday of this week when freshmen reported. Upper classmen were to start their classes Thursday, Sept. 3.

Union High School at Wilmet, Wis., began with a full day on Tuesday.

School bus schedules for the most part will be the same as last year.

In addition, the school districts reported in advance that bus schedules would operate on opening day.

Reconstruction Of Highway 75 Near Bong Set

Reconstruction of highway 75 and re-routing of Racine County trunk J (west of Bong Air Force Base) will go forward as planned, James Meier, district engineer for the Wisconsin highway department, said this week.

An order for relocation of highway 75 in Kenosha and Racine counties was issued last week.

It shows routing of the new highway 75 to include a double lane road from Klondike corners northward to highway 43. There the utility gate of Bong AFB will be located.

From that point it will go straight north as a four-lane roadway past the main entrance, which now has been established, to an interchange

'Looking Through Files' Column Added to News

The ANTIOCH NEWS in its continued effort to provide Antioch and nearby communities with a high quality weekly newspaper, this week adds a new column to its pages.

This one is called "Looking Through the Old Files" and is just what the name implies.

Readers will find items from papers of one, five, 10 and 20 years ago about people they know, organizations, municipal affairs, sports, social events and the like.

This will be a weekly feature.

$43,800 Tax Levy Is Set

The Antioch village board Tuesday night voted a tax levy of $43,800 for various departments and funds of the village government when an ordinance authorizing this amount was passed.

Amount appropriated by the village trustees earlier for the general corporate fund to run the departments was $138,750, plus $15,000 for fire protection and for streets and bridges.

Of the $43,800 tax levy, $32,300 will go for police, public works and buildings, health, legal, administration, accounts and finances and street departments, plus the parking meter, insurance, off street parking and contingent funds.

A total of $5,500 was levied for fire protection and $6,000 for streets and bridges against $15,000 appropriated.

The village hopes to obtain the difference between what has been appropriated and what was levied through parking meter receipts, the sales tax, motor fuel tax, license fees, parking fees, fines, etc.

with highway 11 in Racine county, west of Kansasville.

Acquisition of land involved in the road relocation will start as soon as final Wisconsin highway commission approval has been received.

Meier described the relocation of highway 75 in Kenosha county as curving eastward from Klondike corners to junction with JB about 800 feet west of X.

The new road will move through Brighton village about 500 feet west of X and go north in a straight line about a half mile east of Bong air force base.

The project will include a two-lane highway from the new highway 75 to the utility gate of the base and a four-lane, two-ribbon road way to the main gate, about a half mile north of the utility entrance.

Dredge To Deepen Lake For Better Water Sports

Lake county will gain another sports center when work on a dredging project and related work is completed at Sullivan lake in the southwestern part of the county.

The Wing 'N' Fin club, located 1 1/2 miles northwest of Volo and 4 miles east of McHenry, reported this week that a 17-ton 8 inch suction dredge had arrived there for enlarging and deepening Sullivan lake.

Preliminary figures indicate the project will involve removal of 1,276,000 cubic yards of silt and other materials at a cost in excess of $51,000, club manager Verne Thompson said.

Of more than passing interest to boat enthusiasts is the fact that eventually this dredging will lead to an average lake depth of 9 feet and a lake area of about 113 acres.

"THIS WATER improvement project should enhance both summer and winter fishing and make Sullivan lake available for championship boat racing, water skiing and ultimate establishment of an aquastadium," Thompson said.

It has been reported that if such a stadium was built it would be one of only two in the United States. The other is at San Diego, Calif.

Material removed from the lake bed will be pumped through 2,000 feet of pipe to a marsh region for improvement to Wing 'N' Fin property and to provide "better conditions for sportsmen."

Be Watchful For Children Scott Urges

With schools opening soon in the Antioch area, Police Chief Walter I. Scott today appealed to motorists to be particularly watchful for children going to and from school.

Chief Scott said Antioch drivers must be especially watchful, not only near school buildings but along the routes taken by children before and after school and at home.

"Children frequently dart out in the street on their way to school and some youngsters, especially the smaller ones, may have not been taught about extra caution needed on the way to and from school," Chief Scott said.

He suggested that parents walk the route to school with their small children, pointing out all possible dangers from traffic.

"School administrators do a fine job instructing pupils about traffic rules and regulation, but during the first few days of school parents must accept responsibility for teaching their children the rules of safe walking and bicycle safety until safety courses can be completed.

"Parents must also teach their children to respect and obey all traffic rules. This can best be accomplished by personal example," Chief Scott said.

About a year ago the club completed its clubhouse containing about 28,000 square feet of floor area used for dining, bar service, locker rooms, club rooms and meeting rooms.

Thompson said its aim is to "promote year around sport activities in its area, which in the recent past has been used for hunting, field trials, fishing, boat racing, sports car racing on ice, trap and skeet shooting."

FUTURE PLANS include construction of a large motel with swimming pool, archery course and facilities for all winter sports.

This 1,200 acre area of natural cover, woods and planted cover allow club members to engage in healthful sport as the club is operated under "shooting preserve" laws of the state of Illinois.

These permit the shooting of pheasants, quail, partridge and ducks during a five month season starting October 15.

Acquisition of additional land now allows the club to accept more members, Thompson said.

LV. Antioch Quotas Topped in Campaign

"Doughnut Day" taggers in Antioch and Lake Villa raised $147.72 and $95.44 respectively for the benefit of the Salvation Army on the annual tag day held in June, community chairmen reported this week.

Hunt for Prange Continues In Remote Montana Sector

"There was no concrete proof that 20-year-old Lawrence Eugene Prange was in the high mountain country of western Montana that was searched last week," his mother told the Antioch News Tuesday.

She and her daughter Sharon returned last Friday from Montana where they had gone to assist in the search.

Mrs. Prange said search parties in the Crystal lake area about 75 miles north of Missoula, Mont., had found some possible clues, such as a camp site typical of a single person and 22 caliber cartridge shells suggesting someone might have fired them seeking aid.

Prange, who was a student at Montana university, was last seen Sept. 10, 1958 after telling friends that he and his dog Queen expected to be gone for a few days looking for mountain goats.

When he didn't return, search was instituted and 10 days later the dog was found wild and unfriendly. No trace of the young man was found last fall and cold weather and fog called off efforts then.

FURTHER HUNT for him was delayed until August of this year so snow and cold weather would be nil.

Mrs. Prange said Tuesday that she saw as much as 30 feet of snow in the mountain area where she went to do what she could in the hunt.

What apparently was part of a spine of some animal was found near the Crystal lake area where the search was being concentrated. It was thought it might be that of a grizzly bear.

If it should prove under tests to be that of a bear, it is thought possible the animal could have been killed by young Prange and perhaps the young man injured by the bear.

Also in this sector was found a General Motors automobile key and it was recalled that Prange had had a Chevrolet.

A sleeping blanket was located in the general area and that was to be brought out of the wild sector this week when someone was scheduled to make a trip to "civilization."

DUE TO the remoteness of the area, Mrs. Prange explained, such trips in and out of remote places

Barracks To House 1,600; September Start Expected

BY HENRY GREEN, Editor

BONG AFB, WIS.—Changes are being made—big changes—such as you have to see to understand and believe—in a part of southern Wisconsin that once contained mostly farms.

Bong Air Force Base is "rising" just a few miles north of Antioch and appears destined to become, with shopping areas and perhaps towns growing up nearby, a city of some size.

A city in the sense of several thousand people living on the base and somewhere nearby to provide services.

How many men will be stationed at Bong AFB is classified information, Colonel Lancaster, commanding officer there, told the Antioch News.

However, it is known that work will begin late in September or in October on 900 houses of 2, 3, and 4 bedrooms each.

IN ADDITION two barracks, each capable of caring for 800 persons, will be constructed.

These will be located on the air force base itself. The houses will be in a tree covered area in the northeastern section. Barracks apparently will be located in another part.

The colonel said the homes would be "livable" and permanent and the barracks would be constructed of brick and concrete.

Sheridan-Murray of Pasadena, Calif., was the apparent low bidder on the 900 houses. Construction of the barracks already is under way. The firm having the contract for the houses will have 20 months in which to complete its work.

Eight of nine different styles of homes will be constructed with the idea of making the houses look permanent and not alike.

BONG AFB occupying some 5,400 acres will be supplied with water by two wells. Homes on the base and other buildings will receive their supply in this way.

There will be a base exchange that will furnish buyers with such necessities as shaving cream, tooth brushes and the like, but most of the rest of the people's needs will come from elsewhere.

A snack bar will be located in the exchange for those wishing to have were co-chairmen of the Antioch tag day and Mrs. Fred Bartlett, Jr., headed the Lake Villa drive.

Twenty per cent of the funds raised in each community will remain there to be used for local emergencies or disasters, or to finance unduplicated programs of health care or other services.

Cecile Blumenschein and Helen Fish, both of Lake Villa, assisted Mrs. Bartlett. Quota for Lake Villa was $80.

The 1959 quota for Antioch was $115.

See also pictures of Bong AFB construction on pages 1 and 2 of this edition of the Antioch News.

an extra sandwich or cup of coffee. There also will be a big dining hall where personnel on the base can eat their three regulars.

Plans call for activation of the air force base late in 1961, when planes first will use the airstrips.

One landing runway already is taking shape at the south end of the air base near where Wisconsin highway 75 (extension of Illinois 83) once ran.

HERE WILL be located the "alert" facilities where planes and their crews will be on call 24 hours a day.

Three or four big structures are visible now at the base.

One will contain the heating plant which will use coal for fuel, the colonel said, and the others will be for storing fuel for the planes. Each of the tanks will contain 20,000 or 30,000 gallons.

These structures are on a slight rise above where one of the landing strips will be located. They are visible from Wisconsin highway 75, approaching from Salem and Klondike.

Everywhere can be seen bulldozers, earthmovers, some cranes, trucks, jeeps and other construction equipment rambling over dirt roads cut out by the vehicles themselves, in many cases.

Winter Sports Permit Asked Near Antioch

Skiing and tobogganing will become a Lake county sport and in the vicinity of Antioch if the wishes of a Richmond couple come true following a hearing in Antioch on Sept. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Winn of Richmond are seeking a permit for construction of a public ski and toboggan area for winter sports in an area now zoned F (farm).

The 1,600 by 1,900 foot area is located west of the Fox river, directly below the Wisconsin-Illinois state line and a half mile north of route 173.

This week the Lake county zoning board of appeals set 1:30 p.m. Sept. 18 as the time for a hearing on the petition in the village hall at Antioch.

According to the zoning notice published in this week's Antioch News, a public ski and toboggan area and ski lift and incidental buildings would be instituted.

Mr. Winn is a former president and regional director of the Pure Milk association and now serves the National Milk Protection federation as vice president.

Roland E. Winn, who maintains offices in Antioch, Richmond and Wilmet, will be identified with Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Winn in operation of the winter sports place in the event a permit is given.

The winter sports installation would occupy property now unimproved.

The area lies in Antioch Township high school district 117 and although in Lake county, elementary school children are served by McHenry county grade school district 9.

It's Business As Usual At AHS Making Ready For Opening Day

Again, it seems pertinent to answer the question some of the people in the community ask:

"What does the office force of the high school do during the summer, when the students are on vacation?"

Principal A. L. Dittman has had a 'short vacation,' as has assistant principal Warren Polley.

The three secretaries, Edna Radke Gladys Clarke and Arlene Olzewski, have had their vacations.

And along about the middle of August everyone was hard at work making sure that all will be in readiness for the students on the first day of school.

FRANK DENISON, guidance coordinator, has been testing new students, and those who missed the tests last spring.

State reports have been completed and passed along. Transcripts for students hoping to attend college this fall are still being requested and sent out.

The school is instituting a new form for permanent records this year which will be easier to read, and much more efficient in making transcripts.

There is a great deal more information contained regarding the student, his grades and activities.

The school will begin using the new form for the 1959 freshmen this year, and in four years expect the transition to be complete.

The records are contained in their own cabinet which can be locked.

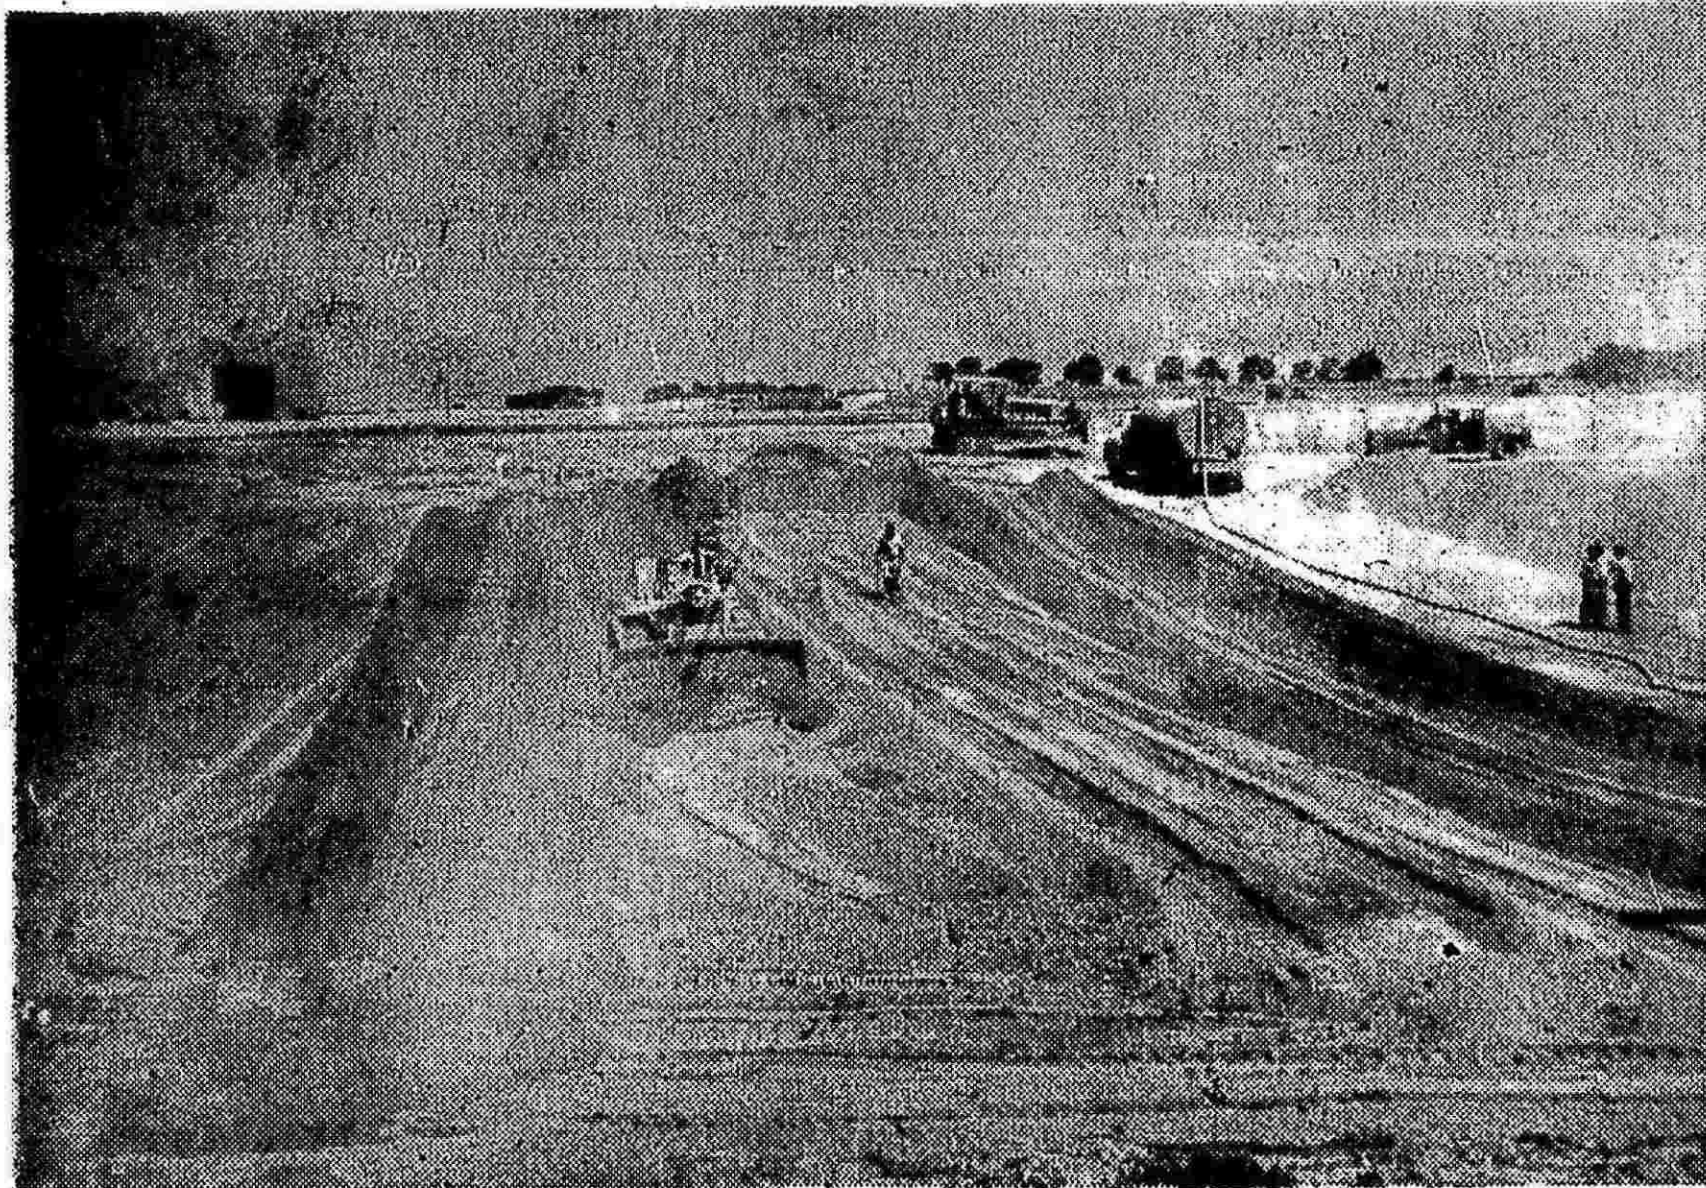

ENROLLMENTS HAVE increased yearly, the teaching staff becomes, of necessity, larger—and additional cafeteria help is needed.

Every addition in personnel and enrollment means more records of every description.

Multitudinous forms are being mimeographed, the student hand book, and last, but not least, individual student programs are being typed.

Supplies that were ordered in June are coming in daily, and are being checked against orders and invoices. This material must all be sorted and made ready for the teachers who requisitioned it.

All in all, it's "business as usual" at the Antioch High school office, with all hands busy.

BONG AFB VIEW shows some of the equipment being used to move dirt into an area once occupied by post bog and similar soft soil. Here are bulldozers pushing dirt brought by trucks from other parts of the Bong Air Force Base and outside it, down a slight slope to help provide a base for the east end of a runway and for "alert" facilities. At the latter plane crews will be on duty 24 hours a day in case they are needed. In the extreme left background can be seen the building housing the air force base's heating plant.

The 50th Among Us

Last, but by no means least is our new 50th State, Hawaii. By last we do not mean that it will necessarily become the last state to be added to our union. Who knows what the future may hold?

We are geographically located so that many important additions could be made in the decades and even centuries that are to come.

Hawaii, with its interesting past and its inviting future beckons to the pioneer spirit of the true American. Our citizenry is welcoming its admission with open arms. And well this should be, for Hawaii became a part of the United States as a territory by request of its own people.

Discovered by Captain Cook, centuries ago, he found its people to be colorful and hospitable. True, its civilization has advanced greatly due to the cultural and industrial influence of the United States. But from a tiny exotic kingdom this cluster of many islands has become a powerful state and a member of the most successful form of self-governing bodies in the history of the world.

Our people are sincerely happy about Hawaii's entrance. Their senators and congressmen are already in Washington. The 50th star will be a recognized reality come next July 4. In the meantime they are accepted, for instance, — driving through "Friendly Fox River Grove," (Ill.) on the date of admission, the writer observed the establishment of "Bill the Barber," decorated tastefully in island settings and the staff costumed in true Hawaiian fashions (grass skirts, etc.) and heard cheerful greetings in authentic dialect. — That point alone, in one case, demonstrates the Spirit of America, the acceptance of challenge to co-operate in the expansion of our democratic way of life.

"Turn Advertising Into Marketing"

As a rule, we like to write our own editorials. But we saw this ad in a Printer's Trade Publication by the firm of Marsteller, Rickard, Gebhardt and Reed, an advertising agency with offices in the major cities, and they covered the subject of advertising to marketing so well that we pass it on to you in the hope it may aid you in this age-old problem.

There are two ways to approach an advertising problem, as we see it.

One is to look at it as an advertising problem. The other is to assume that basically there isn't any such thing as an advertising problem—only marketing problems, some of which can be solved by advertising.

We believe in the marketing approach to advertising. In simplest terms, we want to know where we are going. Or more specifically, we want to know where our clients want to go.

We believe that sales (the ultimate goal) depend on an integrated marketing program, of which advertising is only one, although a very important, element. Others are sales organizations and training, pricing and profitability, distribution channels, potentials, and so on.

Advertising, to have a full chance to succeed, must be related to these other elements. Good advertising must always be based on marketing facts and marketing objectives.

This approach is so simple and so basic that sometimes it seems hardly worth so much underlining. But we defy anyone to sit down and write really successful advertising without knowing what it's supposed to do.

Is it supposed to overcome price resistance?

Is it supposed to establish the advertiser's technical competence in a technical field?

Is it supposed to identify the advertiser and his dealers as good people to do business with?

Is it supposed to attract better dealers to the advertiser's product?

In short, we want to know what and where we should apply our creative abilities to help our clients reach their marketing objectives.

We want the facts, first. Advertising comes afterward and it's better advertising because it's based on facts.

We contend that our marketing approach produces successful advertising for any product.

What we don't know about a specific product, we can find out quickly.

What we do know about selling, about selling appeals, about integrated advertising programs at all levels of durable goods selling, has convinced us that the principle of creating good advertising is unchanging:

Know what you are trying to accomplish."

Alumni of 4-H Clubs Honored For Efforts

In recent years the 4-H program has been broadened to give recognition to former club members through the 4-H alumni recognition program introduced in 1953.

Since that time about 900 men and women have been honored, reports Kenneth H. Anderson, associate director of the national committee on boys' and girls' club work.

This special program was planned and arranged by the cooperative extension service and the national committee, states Anderson.

Sponsors of awards in the Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation, plant food division, Little Rock, Ark.

The aim of the program is to honor former 4-H members who have achieved success in their chosen careers, and have continued to exemplify effective community leadership and service to 4-H, Anderson points out.

There are an estimated 20 million 4-H alumni in the United States, who can encourage and inspire the two million plus boys and girls who belong to over 90,000 clubs.

Candidates for the alumni awards are nominated by extension agents, local 4-H leaders, club members or other interested persons, Anderson explains.

Detailed information may be obtained from the county extension office.

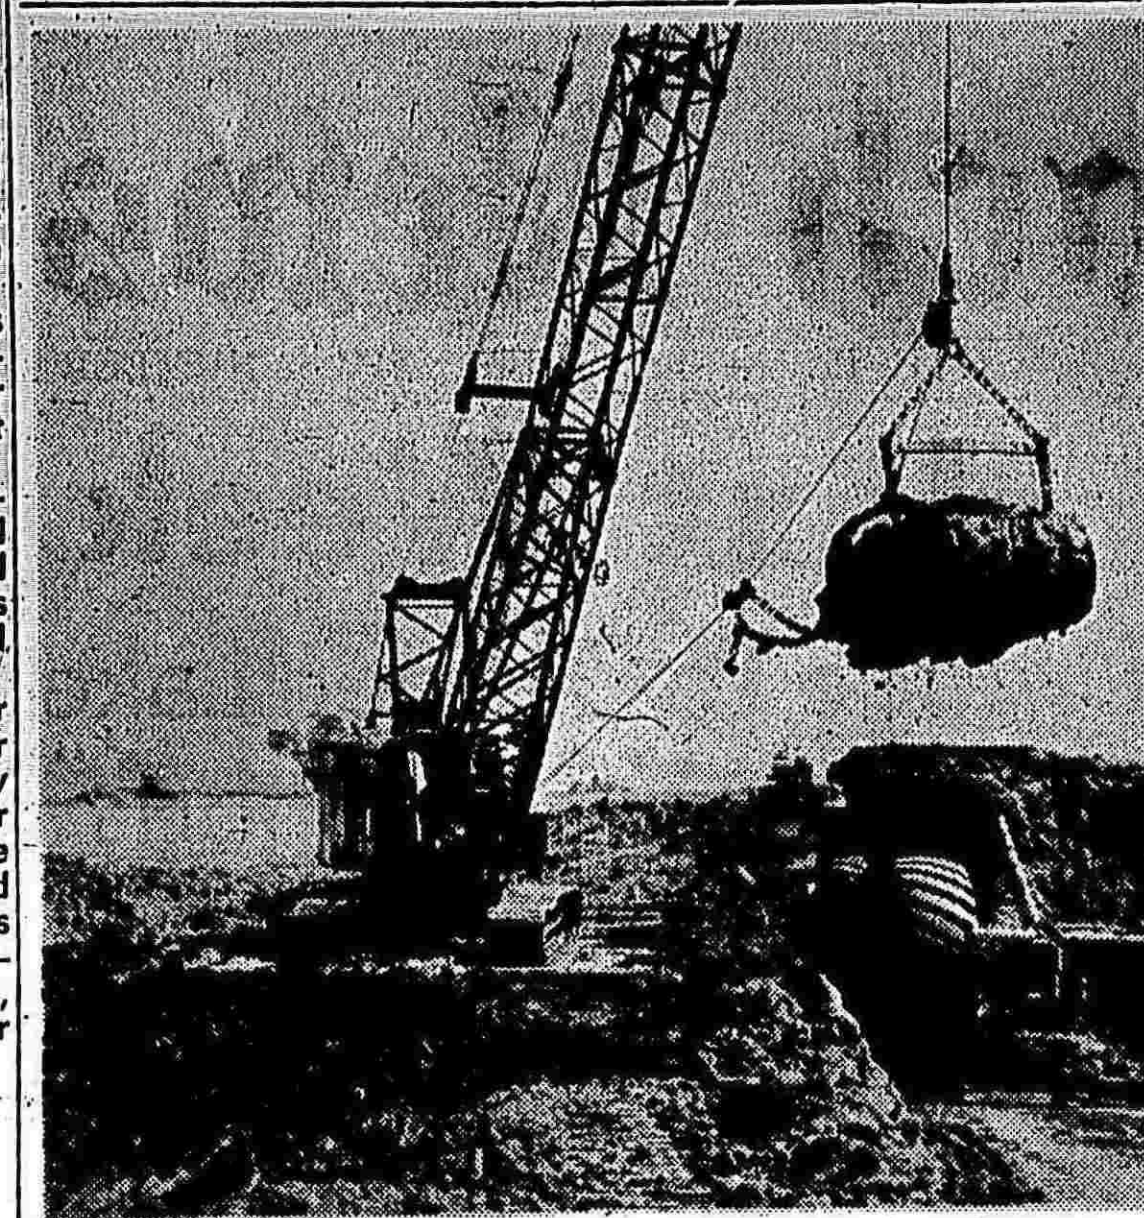

Awards are given at the county, state and national level. They consist of certificates, plaques and the gold 4-H key presented to eight national winners at the 4-H Club congress in Chicago.

Olin Mathieson also pays all expenses to the congress for recipients of the key award, according to Anderson.

THIS IS MUCK! This grimy, wet mess is being scooped out of a section of the Bong Air Force Base site north of Antioch where work is well under way on construction of the base. This peat bog area is being cleared so fresh dirt can be hauled in as shown in page one photograph. Huge earthmovers (shown at right) were at work in clearing the peat bog area shown here. In the distance is land being leveled by more machines such as these earthmovers.

Flickering Campfire Is Setting Of BS Troop 86 Court Of Honor

By Pearl Kapell
Channel Lake Correspondent
CHANNEL LAKE — The Boy Scout Court of honor held by Troop 86 on August 29 was viewed by about 125 people.

The site for the ceremonies was the gravel pit, on Little Orchard farm.

Only at night, in the flickering light of the campfire, it didn't look like a gravel pit.

One could easily think one had been suddenly transported back to the old West—the campfire flickered on the sheer red walls of a canyon and around the campfire slipped the shadowy forms of Indians.

It was beautiful and the quiet of the audience attested to their appreciation of the fact.

The ceremonies were opened by assistant scoutmaster Bill Young riding a horse around the rim of the pit and down into the center of the pit.

He, as were all the scouts, the scoutmaster and committeemen, were dressed as Indians, paint and feather headresses.

Tom and Ray Atwood, holding lighted torches in the darkness, made short speeches presenting the scouts with the world before them, to preserve and protect.

Committeeman Emory Trussell, dressed as a medicine man, welcomed the gathering.

At the close of his words a ball of fire rolled down the walls of the pit, igniting the campfire.

The various scouts then were called forth to receive the promotions they had earned, and recognition given to those boys who had earned promotions over the summer.

Rodney Patterson and John Ring received tenderfoot pins, Fred Bolton, Terry Dowell, Paul Kaleth, John Patterson, Terry Senesman and Calvin Trussell second class pins.

Roger Eberman, Kenneth Buell and Joe Ring were presented with first class pins by their respective mothers.

James Bruski, neighborhood commissioner of the scouts, was introduced by scoutmaster Ray Atwood, and spoke a few words in praise of the accomplishments of Troop 86 and the scout personnel who have worked with the boys.

The various committeemen and assistant scoutmasters were introduced to the assembly by the scoutmaster, and the ceremonies were concluded by an invitation from Mr. Atwood who asked the crowd to share coffee and doughnuts around the campfire.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Heath attended the wedding of their nephew, Gene Chambers, in Rensselaer, Ind., Saturday, Aug. 29. They returned home Monday.

Don't forget Felter's Subdivision picnic Sunday, Sept. 6.

Sunnyside Subdivision's 25th annual picnic Sunday, Sept. 6.

Danny Runyard and Andy Milowski made a trip to Berlin, Wis., this week to visit Harold Dowell.

Wilmot High Booklet Tells About School

A 24-page handbook for students at Wilmot high school has come off the press. This booklet telling about the school building gives data of interest to parents and students alike.

A kind of preface on an inside page reads, in part:

"This handbook represents the cooperative efforts of faculty members, administrators and the board of education. It will acquaint you with school policies, school activities, regulations and courses of study.

"We hope that the information contained herein will be a help to parents, teachers and the school community."

Pages 2 and 3 contain names of members of the board of education, the school administrators and the faculty.

Data concerning the school's name, colors, mascot, song, fees and fire drills is printed on pages 4 and 5.

The school calendar from the opening Sept. 8 through the close on June 3, 1960 is found on page 6. School routine, curriculum offerings, guidance program, honor roll requirements and miscellaneous items are on pages 7 through 11.

Drawings of the floor plans for the first and second floors are found on pages 12, 13 and 14.

By-laws of the Wilmot student council are printed on pages 15 and 16, list of subjects offered on page 17.

Requirements for college entrance, testing program, clubs and organizations and facts to remember are on pages 18 and 19.

A description of courses offered concludes the booklet.

It was set in type and printed by the Gaston Printing Co., publishers of the Antioch News.

Painting, Repairs, and Bus Maintenance Among Custodial Jobs at High School

(Crowded Out Last Week)
Five custodians have been busy at the Antioch Township high school during the summer months with maintenance and repair of the building and grounds.

The custodians work a 40 hour week during the summer with two weeks' vacation.

Porter Larson, head custodian, has had a full schedule of work for the men, composed of Arthur Andersen, Ronald Olsen, Clarence Haase and Robert Michaelson.

Considerable time has been spent on painting various areas of the interior of the building.

Some of the large areas painted this summer have been the cafeteria, auditorium, main hall areas and several of the classrooms.

Some time was taken out during the summer to repair various parts of the roof of the old building and the new addition areas.

Throughout the summer, men had to cut the grass and trim the hedge and bush areas on the campus.

Since the custodians also drive buses during the school year, the buses had to be cleaned and ready for the opening of school.

Periodically, the custodians must take refresher courses in first aid in order to maintain their driver licenses.

Routine maintenance has been done to the floors by sealing and waxing. Washing windows, scrubbing walls, cleaning out the main boiler of the heating system are a few of the other chores.

The men also have laid floor tile and placed acoustic tile block in some of the hall areas in the old building.

New light fixtures have been installed and several cabinets have been built for some of the classrooms.

Some windows that had rotted out had to be replaced—and the same with some of the exterior doors.

Some time has been spent putting the athletic area in shape for this fall football activity. Bleachers have been erected and repaired—and in some places painted.

The boys and girls will be returned by bus before the noon hour after completing a morning of registration.

Teachers will participate in an afternoon workshop after attending a luncheon in the school cafeteria for all school employees and members of the school board.

Atty. Ted Larson will speak on school liability and recent school legislation at the workshop.

Low Bid on Paving

Main St. Is $37,925

Peter Baker & Son Co. of Lake Bluff was apparent low bidder on its offer of $37,925 for the paving of Main street in Antioch between route 173 and North Ave., the state division of highways announced.

This would consist of 1.20 miles of variable width bituminous concrete resurfacing.

The division of highways also announced that Skokie Valley Asphalt Co., Inc., of Des Plaines was apparent low bidder for resurfacing and bituminous patching of routes 59, 120, 173 and 132 between Barrington and Antioch.

Its offer was $134,459 for the 7.12 miles of intermittent bituminous work.

To Make Good Coffee: Here is an old method for making good coffee:

"French cooks are famous for the excellence of their coffee, which they make so strong that one part of the liquid requires the addition of two parts to reduce it to the proper strength. This addition is made with hot milk. The large proportion of hot milk, in the place of so much warm water, gives the coffee a richness like that made by the addition of cream in the ordinary way. By this means any housekeeper desirous of making good coffee, can have it without cream."

Sounds good, doesn't it, you black coffee drinkers?

Add Blacktop Coating To Oakland Roadways

A coating of blacktop has been added to the hitherto dirt roads and parking spaces surrounding the new Oakland school building at the intersection of the Deep Lake and Loon Lake roads.

The driveway sections in front of the structure and the parking area and roads leading to it at the rear were covered late last week. Monday barriers prevented vehicles from using them.

'Good Selection' Of Books At LV

"If everybody brought back the books they have out, I don't know where we would put them," said Mrs. Ted Belke, librarian of the Lake Villa Township library.

She hastened to add that patrons of the library are returning books when due but are then taking out other books.

The purchase of new books and borrowed books from the state library keep an excellent selection in the library at all times.

A new island of shelving and extensions of two other islands are being added to take care of the book additions.

Another source of reading material is book gifts recently received from Mrs. Jere Hagen, Charles Wullenbacher, Mrs. Percy Moran, the Melby family and the Jordan family.

Shirley Oilschlager was reader for the last meeting of the Space Reader story hour on Saturday morning. Charlene Kamen was also a recent reader.

Additions to the local artist display are the work of Mrs. John J. Chmellir of Venetian Village.

Her blue ribbon winner from the Wilmot fair and a linoleum block print which received special recognition at the University of Illinois.

are both being enjoyed by art lovers of the area.

Mrs. Chmellir is a teacher in the Lake Villa Elementary school, the mother of three children and a meticulous and expressive artist.

Dance Enjoyed By Teen Club At Beachhouse

By Jim Jankowiak
Fox Lake Hills Correspondent

The Fox Lake Hills Teen club held its weekly dance at the Beachhouse Monday with a large crowd of the younger set from the neighboring subdivisions as guests.

The Teen club dances are getting bigger and better with each succeeding week as members work towards getting the entire affair organized.

During the short meeting at the conclusion of the dance, plans for the future were read off. They included a big dance in December.

According to Mrs. Alex, the Teen club will hold a paper and magazine drive at the end of each month. All residents are requested to save old papers, etc., for these drives.

The big question is What is the Teen club to do with all the pesos they are raking in on dances and paper drives?

No doubt, they're going to hold a big free barbecue for everybody in the subdivision.

I wish to correct an error made in this column in last week's issue. It was brought to my attention that I said liens were being processed against those who had not paid their Fox Lake Hills Association dues.

This was an error. I was off a month. Liens will be processed against those who have not paid their dues by September 21.

Association secretary Julie Chonis reports that many people have paid their dues the past week and that only a few still remain on the delinquent list.

On the subject of the association, the big meeting is to be held at 3 p. m. on Sunday, Sept. 20. The meeting will take place in the Lake Villa grade school auditorium.

Maybe There Is An Easier Way To Make A Living Or Vacation

By Pearl Kapell

"Happy Labor Day!" One of the local tradesmen greeted me with these words about the Fourth of July.

Puzzled, and wondering if he had finally flipped under the strain of the summer rush of business, I just gazed at him with a bewildered expression.

He hastened to explain to me that he usually said these words to himself, silently, but seeing a familiar face had made him momentarily abandon restraint.

Sympathetic, having occasionally had the same feelings he expressed, I listened to his tale of woe and after leaving him brooded for a while on the delights of summer in a resort area.

Your joys and/or woes in this matter are governed pretty much by your business or job, and the geographical location of your home.

If you're a resort owner, the more the merrier, of course, from a business standpoint. And you know beforehand, of course, that it will rain practically every week-end and holidays.

BUT EVEN a resort-owner can get too much of a good thing, and I have seen some, late in the summer, with a "Happy Labor Day look" in their eyes.

Especially owners of fishing resorts as they gazed at the myriads of power boats zooming back and forth across the lake.

And owners of places dedicated to the launching of power boats as they listened to the tale of woe of would-be fishermen.

And owners of resorts who have teen-age children supposed to be helping in the work about the place, who inevitably form friendships with customers their own age and can see no good reason why they should not be free to pursue the same gay, careless life as their summer visitors.

If your home is located near any bit of water deep enough to accommodate a boat, Saturday and Sunday mornings are sure to be a delight.

You are awakened at 4 a. m. by the joyous sounds of fishermen taking off for their pet fishing grounds. If they have a large boat equipped with a horn, this is especially effective in the hush of a summer dawn.

THEY SIT and blow it happily to call any slow-poke friends who are tardy and to let any who are lingering abed know that they're leaving. They're up, ergo, the rest of the world is, too.

If the early-morning anglers have only a boat with an outboard motor, they call cheerily and loudly to each other as they prepare to leave.

There are several false starts of the motor, loud advice given, loud replies to the advice made. You lie and pray the motor will catch.

It does and the boat chugs happily away. Silence settles, and you drift back to sleep.

About 8 a. m. the children in a rented cottage near-by rise and start looking for entertainment. Their parents are sleeping peacefully, having stayed up, with about 50 guests, till 3 a. m. for the sole purpose of keeping you awake.

The children take advantage of this happy state of affairs to pick on each other. Soon the morning is rent with screams of anguish as one of the children scores a bullseye. This is repeated until the parents are awakened.

DOES QUIET descend?

Oh, no.

The parent takes this opportunity for a loud and long harangue to his child. You begin wishing he'd go back to sleep and let the kids fight it out.

But the other parent is now awakened, and screams for quiet. This starts an altercation between the two parents, which may go on for an hour or more.

If you care to listen, you can usually gain a pretty fair knowledge of the whole past of these transient neighbors, including all their relatives.

But by this time, you sigh and rise for a cup of coffee, muttering "Happy Labor Day."

If you live in any of the surrounding region, an ordinary trip to Antioch, during the summer months, can become an exciting adventure.

TRAFFIC IS heavy and erratic. You never know when a gay crowd of vacationers will swing swiftly out of a side road or a roadside eating place, directly in front of you, tires squealing.

After all, they're in the country, where everything is peaceful and relaxed. This isn't like heavy city traffic where you have to watch your step and obey rules.

A car, travelling steadily along in front of you, suddenly slaps on its brakes and slows to a full stop. They're admiring the lake.

Or trying to find some place, they're not sure just where it's located. Is this it? No. Normal speed is resumed. Again, a sudden stop. Is this it? No.

This goes on till the proper place is sighted, when the car swings suddenly off the road, with no signal that he has any intention of turning.

He was almost past when he realized this was what he was looking for. This performance may be repeated several times with several different cars before you reach Antioch.

THERE YOU find all parking places filled. You finally find a place a couple of blocks from where you want to go and gratefully pull into it.

Now for a battle through the local super-mart. Traffic is more congested here, and the drivers more reckless.

You don't need a license to push a basket, and a bland disregard for shins, feet and other portions of the anatomy prevail.

You work your way slowly through a crowd which is trying to go in 18 different directions and finally reach the check-out counter. Or rather, the line waiting to get to the check-out counter.

It stretches to the end of the store, and the people still trying to shop, keep asking you to move so they can get through. Only there's usually no place to move to.

You finally reach the check-out counter. Here, a harassed clerk throws your eggs in with anything hard enough to crack them, and sets a few cans carefully on top of the strawberries and tomatoes.

IF YOU'RE in any condition to notice this error of judgment, you let it go. You're as anxious to get out of there as she is to have you.

You wheel the heavy cart two blocks to where you're parked and unload. Shall you return the cart? Your conscience says "yes", but the thought of plunging back into the sweating, pushing crowd makes you quail. Feeling like a sneak and a culprit, you push the basket out of harm's way and start hastily for home.

The morning's trip is repeated, except that there is more traffic and the driver's tempers are getting shorter as the day progresses.

Reaching home, you look longingly at the calendar and murmur "Happy Labor Day."

If you live on the lake, or near enough for sound to carry, your days are made hideous by the whine and roar of power-boats.

If your property abuts on any water, you spend part of each day picking up empty cans, dead fish and other bits of flotsam and jetsam that have been cast on your land.

YOU SPEND another portion of it trying to explain to carefree vacationers that if you let everyone who wants to picnic on your lawn, or fish from it, you wouldn't have any lawn left.

You can never convince them that this is a reasonable point of view. You may point out to them that they would be sorely offended if you came in the city and parked on their lawn, but this is different. This is the country. And in their eyes, you're just a trouble-making old crab.

Owners of businesses have their

BENJAMIN G. MUNSINGER, SR., 67, of 283 Hickory Lane, Antioch, received a Beltone "Carillon" hearing aid at the Lake county fair in Grayslake. His son, Howard, 28, who lives with his parents, received $25. Above, George Lester, manager of Beltone's Waukegan office, adjusts hearing aid on the senior Munsinger. Munsinger recently retired after serving as superintendent of mails and advertising at the Chicago Paper company, Chicago. His wife, Edith, 67, (right) said: "Since we live on social security, it is a blessing."

607 Series Is Rolled By Mrs. Helen Barnes

Helen Barnes showed her husband, Earl, that he isn't the only really good bowler in the family when she rolled a 607 series last week at the Antioch Bowl lanes.

Mrs. Barnes last year won second place in the Antioch tournament and took home a $300 prize.

This past week his wife rolled 202-229-176—607 in Summer Mixed league action, the first time in several years of bowling that she has rolled 600 or more. Mrs. Barnes is secretary of the league.

own special problems. They must cater to the summer trade, who furnish the heavy bulk of business and make a good profit possible.

But they must try to conceal from the year-around trade that they cater to the summer trade. "Natives" automatically and loudly resent any hint that their trade is not more valuable than that of summer people.

THE MERCHANT must listen sympathetically to the tale of woe of the vacationer, how everyone is after his money, no one gives him a break, residents are not even polite.

The next moment he must bend just as sympathetic an ear to the complaints of residents, annoyed and disgusted by the crowd that interferes with his daily life.

By the end of the summer, the merchant begins to wonder if he's developing a split personality, and, in the words of the Kingston Trio, "he just don't like anybody very much."

With a pain in his pocketbook, but a momentary song in his heart, he murmurs, "Happy Labor Day."

Trevor Boy, 13, Drowned
In Rock Lake Accident

A 13-year-old Trevor boy is dead and a game of "follow the leader" has backfired as the result of an incident in Rock Lake.

Drowned when he tried an underwater escape trick with two other boys, was Harold (Buzz) Nelson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson of Circle Lane, Rock Lake Highlands subdivision, Trevor.

The boy was swimming with two companions, Tom Boysen, 13, of Chicago, and Edward Mueller, 12, of Griswold Lane, Trevor, from a raft at the west beach of the lake late Friday afternoon.

The trio was taking part in swimming stunts around the raft when Harold asked the other boys to let him and they would "play a game of convict."

Strips from the raft carpeting were torn and Nelson's hands and feet were tied. The boy told his companions he planned to roll from the raft into the water while still bound.

NELSON ROLLED off the raft, the boys told Dep. Cor. Thomas J. Durf, who was summoned to the scene after the tragedy. Moments later the boys saw bubbles rise to the surface and they dived into the water.

The water reportedly is 30 feet deep at this point.

The Boysen youth said he went down "pretty deep" and saw the Nelson boy, grabbed him but could not hold onto his hair because it was cut to short.

The Antioch and Trevor Rescue squads were summoned to the scene but before they arrived the Rev. William Bohem, a summer resident

Members of Club Organized in '24 Are Guests of Channel Lake Folks

By Pearl Kapell

CHANNEL LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberman entertained about forty-five guests Sunday. Guests were members of a social club to which Mrs. Eberman belongs, and their families.

The group was started in 1924 as a Sunday school class of seven girls in the Warren Avenue Congregational church and adopted the name, the "Malora Girls."

The group stayed together as the class grew older and dissolved, and at one time did a great deal of philanthropic work.

As the girls married and moved away, the organization became a social club and new members were taken in.

During college days, Greek letters were adopted, and it became a sorority. Under one name or another, the group has persisted and now holds monthly meetings.

Members are scattered over the United States but keep in touch. The gathering at the Eberman home Sunday was composed of members from the Chicago area, their children, grandchildren and relatives.

Mrs. Elmer Eberman's mother, Mrs. William C. Pflaum, who will be 85 years of age on September 9, will be honored by her family at a dinner September 6 at Simonini's in Algonquin.

Present at the dinner will be her three children, Mrs. Lucille Eberman, Mrs. Lewis Merrifield and Eldon W. Pflaum, and their families. Mrs. Pflaum has eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The Edward Dockrys returned from their trip through the East August 24. They shortened their trip by a week because of the extreme heat. They report that they had a wonderful time, nevertheless.

Mrs. James Fridell was visited for a week by her son, James, Jr., of Des Plaines, and his four children and two of their friends. The group left August 29. Sunday Mrs. Fridell's niece, Dorothy Richter, and daughter Barbara of Maywood visited her.

Larry Zerr and "Chip" Eberman left August 28 for a fishing trip to Antigo, Wis. They will be gone about four days.

Mrs. Alma Nielsen, who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Kaleth, returned to her home in Pasadena, Calif., August 24. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kaleth and their children made a trip to the Wisconsin Dells last week.

Seaman John Hucker sailed for Hawaii and Japan aboard the U. S. S. Kearsarge Saturday, August 29. He will celebrate his 19th birthday aboard ship September 6. His mother, Mrs. Ted Hucker, says he has won three trophies in bow-and-arrow matches recently. The contests were not connected with navy programs.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bartley were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Manley Gunderson of Huston, Minn., last week. Mrs. Gunderson is Mr. Bartley's sister.

Miss Dorothy Olson returns Tuesday, Sept. 8, to her duties as teacher

Channel Lake school will re-open on September 8. About 160 children are expected to attend this year. Teachers will be Dorothy Karczewski, Mrs. Jerry Kaleth, Mrs. Grace Amendola, Mrs. Arthur Sobey, Mrs. Otto Youngman and Principal Don Behling.

Lake Villa Lady Trained Leader

LAKE VILLA—Mrs. Glen McNeil of the Lake Villa district is among those who have been trained as unit recreation leaders in various phases of home and group recreation.

She will be host to the Lake Region meeting in September or October on "Non-Commercial Community Recreation," the Lake county home bureau at Grayslake announced.

This like other such groups in the county will analyze its own community to see what its needs are for recreation for young as well as older people.

Various games, songs and stunts will be tried out at the meeting.

Venetian Blinds Solve Storage Problem

THIS DELIGHTFUL child's room features an unusual Venetian blind treatment of storage areas. In a small room which had no closets, an arrangement was devised with shelves and clothes poles and Venetians as doors. One set of Venetians are of alternating slats of red, white and pink; the other—a pattern of gold leaves sprinkled on a white slat. These Venetian "doors" are highly decorative as well as functional.

Thom-Eric Wins Over Jim's Service

By Bill Ferris

Seven runs in the fifth inning told most of the tale for Thom-Eric Construction Tuesday evening as they planned the first second round defeat on Jim's Service in the Lake-Keno league softball by a score of 11-6.

This defeat for the servicemen put Antioch Bowl in sole possession of first place in the second half standings as of Wednesday night of this week.

Jim's Service is in second place and Thom-Eric third, each with a chance to take the title for the second round.

Mathematically speaking Antioch Bowl and Jim's Service could end the second round tied for first place.

If this should happen, the two will meet at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Huff field 2 miles north of Antioch, preliminary to the winner playing Thom-Eric, winners of the first round, for the league title.

The championship contest is booked for 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

In the first game played this week Tuesday evening, Antioch Bowl kept in the undefeated class for the second half by thumping Fox Lake Hills 33-13 and set a new record with a total of 31 base hits.

REMAINING SCHEDULE

Sept. 3—Golfview vs. Chiefs, Antioch Bowl vs. Jim's Service; Saddle Inn vs. Golfview.

Sept. 4—Chiefs vs. Jim's Service; Thom-Eric vs. Bussie's.

Sept. 5—Championship game, 8:30.

The game originally scheduled for Friday night between Fox Lake and Lake Villa was played Wednesday evening.

MONDAY NIGHT GAMES

Antioch Bowl won one of its most important softball games of the year Monday night by defeating Dick Carlucci and the Chiefs 11-3.

Two Local Teams Win In Softball Contests

Golfview and Jim's Service of Antioch and a Moose lodge team from Waukegan racked up softball victories in games played at Huff field about 3 miles north of Antioch Sunday afternoon and evening.

These non-league affairs saw Golfview down Thom-Eric 12-2 with the help of 9 runs in the first inning, Jim's Service down Amon's of Chicago 13-6 and the Antioch Moose lose to a more experienced Waukegan Moose team.

Fred Fabry, Lake Villa, Turns Out for Football

MOUNT VERNON, Iowa—Fred Fabry of Lake Villa, Ill., was among those expected out for initial workouts for the 1959 football squad at Cornell college in Mount Vernon, Iowa, this week Monday.

Forty-one players, including 19 lettermen and 17 others who earned numerals in last season's undefeated freshman team, were among those reporting.

and remaining undefeated in the second round.

Holding on with a 4-3 lead in the sixth inning, the men from the Bowl rallied for seven big runs in their half of the frame.

After two were out, Peters singled and went to third on Hink's double, Bob DaMato then drove both home with his biggest hit of the year.

This seemed to be the spark as Kapheim, Grenell, Christensen's triple and Roy Bettes homerun rocked Carlucci and the Chiefs.

In gaining his ninth victory of the season, DaMato allowed the Chiefs but six hits, two of them going to Frankie Balistreri and the only extra base knock to Jack Lawrence. This was a double.

Kapheim with three hits and Bettes with a pair led the winners and Bob Becvar found himself a base hit to snap a hitting slump.

SECOND GAME MONDAY

"Casey" Erickson's pitching and his Builders whacking out 18 hits buried Lake Villa 17-2 in the second game of the evening.

Bob Jungkans with a single, double, triple and homerun; Phil Burgdorf's and Rich Pahlke's three hits gave the first round champs their fourth win of the second round.

It also kept them in contention for second round honors.

Dick Carlucci, filling in for the VFW team, took another crack at Erickson. This one was a lead-off single driven back at Casey to start the sixth inning for the losers, in which they tallied 5 runs.

In his first start of the season on the hill and at the plate, "Casey" not only gained his first victory but had himself a .500 batting night with two hits in four tries.

VFW netted only six hits off Erickson with Jack Mahoney garnering two of them.

Grid Squad Opens Drills at Antioch Hi

Warmer weather could help at least one "business" in Antioch and vicinity these days.

The football coaching fraternity probably would like to see it hot and perhaps even humid for a few more weeks.

No, not all of them may have air conditioning at home or in their school room.

But warm weather, running, blocking and the like can help much in putting football team candidates—and the coaches—into condition.

This week the Sequoits under head coach Bob Walther started their workouts in back of Antioch Township high school with 27 boys on the varsity, including 11 lettermen.

AND BESIDES these varsity candidates are a large group of sophomores and freshmen.

The local school opens its 1959 gridiron season against Wilmot on the local field at 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 19. This will be a non-conference contest.

Lettermen out this week were Co-Capt. Dick Gudgeon and Don Pyles, Ken Stepien, Bob Martin, Dick Wolf, Bob Wazniak, Chip Eberman, Walt Borquist and Phil Mitchell, all seniors, and Ed Martin and Jack

McHenry 'Stars' Top Lake Kenos, Scharton Wins

McHenry county softball all-stars pounded out 24 hits to combine with four errors by Lake Kenos all-stars to defeat the latter 19-7 at Huff field Saturday evening before a banner crowd of fans.

Four homeruns off the pitches of Jim Brodie and Eddie Lindstrom were among the 24 safe blows by the visitors. The home town team was limited to 15 hits and McHenry made a pair of misplays.

Six runs each in the second and eighth innings of the 9 inning contest told most of the scoring story for McHenry.

In the second contest of the evening, the Lake Kenos all-stars led by manager Ferris Scharton of Saddle Inn, came from behind to defeat the stars managed by John Frystak of Fox Lake Hills, 12-7.

The Scharton stars scored once in the second, five times in the third and six times in the fourth after the Frystak team had tallied five times in the first and twice in the third.

Title Game Slated Sat.

It will be either Jim's Service or Antioch Bowl meeting Thom-Eric at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at Huff field 2 miles north of Antioch for the Lake-Keno Softball league championship.

The Bowlers and the servicemen were to meet Thursday evening, Sept. 3, and if the Bowlers won they would play Thom-Eric on Saturday.

However, if Jim's Service came out on top, Antioch Bowl and Jim's would meet at 7:30 p.m. Saturday preliminary to the Thom-Eric contest.

Thom-Eric thumped Jim's Service this week Tuesday evening in the second round of play to give the servicemen their first defeat of that half.

Up to Wednesday evening of this week, at least, Antioch Bowl was undefeated in the second round.

Thom-Eric won the first half championship and the right to play in the Keno league championship game.

Giants Topple Sox 7 To 5 In Little League Finale

The Giants knocked over the Sox 7-5 in a post season Little League baseball thriller at the Antioch Little League diamond Sunday afternoon to close the 1959 local year.

Marty Dryski, pitcher for the Giants, struck out 15 batters and walked six. Pitcher Bobby Carter for the Sox fanned seven and walked 10 of his foes.

All in all it was a very well played ball game, spectators noted.

After the contest, the boys had a picnic with every boy playing in the league invited to enjoy free pop and hot dogs.

Monday the Giants squad was treated to a malt by their sponsor, Roman Vos of Antioch Lumber Co. Then the boys went for a swimming party at the Grumbeck home.

The Giants were out to win that game against the Sox Sunday afternoon for a buddy player of theirs who was operated on for appendicitis Monday morning.

All the players signed their names to a new baseball and it was taken to the boy's home. His name is Jimmy Cogdill.

His teammates said he was "speechless" when he received the ball and learned the boys won that game for him.

Some time later the boys will receive trophies from the league president, Bill Lang.

Boys who will be 13 years old next season are being asked to try out for the Babe Ruth Baseball league. That league is said to need a lot of boys of that age for the 1960 season.

League leaders and the boys themselves said the 1959 season was a "very successful" one and that they hoped more parents would turn out for Little League and Babe Ruth league games next year.

Roger Haigi Wins Racing At Wilmot

WILMOT, Wis.—Roger Haigi of Antioch, Ill., jumped to an early lead in the first heat and never was bested, although threatened by Rod Fuller of Racine, as Haigi took the checkered flag in races at the fairgrounds track at Wilmot Saturday night.

It had been predicted early in the season that Haigi would bear watching but Ray Toft of Ray's Shell service was the only one who would agree.

This is Haigi's first year of track racing and observers believe he has a good future on the dirt tracks. This was his first checkered flag this season.

Fuller was second and Ed Irving of Waukegan took third.

In the second heat, Jeff Scott of Racine placed first, Jim E. Dixon of Ingleside second and Tom Dill of Gurnee, Ill., third.

THE THIRD heat was taken by Jack "Flip" Frost of Zion with Roy York of Libertyville second and Swede Erickson of Gurnee third.

Heat race No. 4, for the fastest time qualifiers of the night, was won by Bobby Rataszyk of Kenosha, Karl Kulow of Plymouth, Wis., driving the three wheel special (left front wheel seldom touches the track) took second. Little Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee was third.

After a brief intermission, 22 cars raced in the semi-feature. Fuller won the 15 lap event with Ed Irving second and Erickson third.

After a gruelling battle in the feature, Stillman finally nosed out Frost for first, with Rataszyk running third. Karl Kulow, York, Ranasan, Ray Darnell finished in that order.

"UNCLE MILTY" blew a piston in the feature and withdrew early.

Because of the great demand, two more racing nights have been scheduled, Sept. 12 and Sept. 19.

This is being made possible through the close cooperation of the Kenosha county fair board, Wilmot high school board and Patenjim Racing.

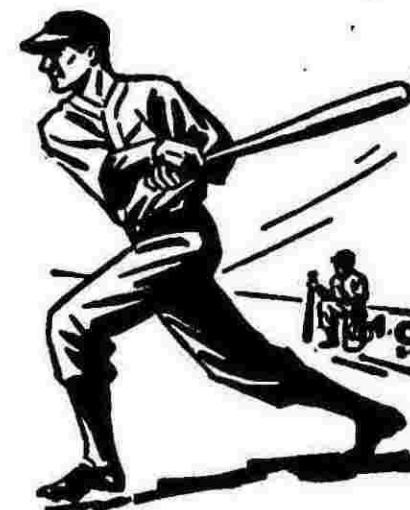

Jim Smith said that Wilmot on the dates of Sept. 5, 12 and 19 will be the last opportunities to see modified stock car racing this year.

Paid attendance last Saturday evening was 2,448 and the purse was $1,300.
